

Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/L 1195/i

Abstract of the Nuncupative Will of James Launder of the Parish of Mawgan in Meneage in the County of Cornwall, recorded 27 Nov 1716, proved 1 Oct 1717.

Appointed his grandson James Launder executor of his will, giving him his tenement of Tresomper?

Gave twenty shillings to his son-in-law Pasco Tregideen.

He gave twenty shillings to his daughter the wife of the said Pasco Tregideen.

He gave twenty shillings to his granddaughter Margaret Tregideen.

He gave twenty shillings to his daughter Luce Mary Launder.

The rest of his goods and chattels he gave to his grandchildren, the sons and daughters of Richard Launder, deceased, to be shared equally between them.

(his mark)

Witnesses: Mary Mager, Walter Rodgers.

-----

James Launder aka Lander was buried in Mawgan on 29 Nov 1716. His wife Mary died in March of the same year, buried in the same place on 29 Mar 1716.