

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers, PROB 11/375/110.

Abstract of the Will of Dame Alice Borlase of Bockmer in Medmenham in the County of Bucks, Widow & Relict of Sir John Borlase, Baronet, written 8 Jan 1679/80, proved 31 Jan 1683/4.

Gives £300 to her son Sir John Borlase of Bockmore, Baronet, along with her household stuff.

Gives £50 each to her grandchildren Nicholas Millar, Borlase Millar, Elizabeth Millar and Mary Millar, children of her son-in-law Sir Humfry Millar of Oxonhoath in co. Kent, Knight & Baronet, to be paid to them when they reach their respective majorities.

Gives £50 each to her grandchildren Henry Langton, Frances Langton, Dorothea Langton and Mary Langton, son & daughters of her son-in-law Joseph Langton of Newton Park in co. Somerset, Esquire, to be paid to them when they reach their respective majorities.

Gives £100 each to her grandsons Borlase Warren and Arnold Warren, sons of her son-in-law Authur Warren of Stapilford in co. Nottingham, Esquire, to be paid to them when they reach their respective majorities.

Gives £200 to her grandson John Webb, son of her son-in-law John Webb of Missenden in co. Bucks, Esquire, by his wife Katherine Webb, her daughter deceased, to be paid to him when he turns eighteen.

Gives £10 each to the poor of the parishes of Medmenham, Lurgashall and Little Marlow, all in co. Bucks.

Gives £10 each to the poor of the parish of Stretton Audley in co. Oxon.

Appoints her sons-in-law Humfry Millar, Joseph Langton, Arthur Warren and John Webbe co-executors of her last will and testament, giving them £20 each.

(Signed)

Witnesses: Charles Fortescu, Thomas Powell, Mary Powell