

Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/A/881.

Abstract of the Will of Catherine Arundell (Wife of William Arundell) of Trengwainton in the Parish of Madron in the County of Cornwall, written 25 Jul 1757, proved 20 Aug 1760.

Wills that her body be buried in the parish churchyard of Helston.

Gives £300 to her husband William Arundell.

Gives and bequeaths to her daughter Sarah Williams all her plate, china and books, her Cornelian seal engraved with her and her late husband Williams's initials, as well as all her rings and jewells.

Gives to her daughter Mary Williams her picture of Bodriggy along with her watch, chain and egg.

Gives 5 guineas to Sampson Sandys of Helston to buy himself a mourning ring.

Gives and bequeaths £200 to William Veale of Trevailer, esq. in trust, to pay the interest from time to time to her daughter Catharine the wife of Mr. William John, during the term of her natural life. After her death she wills that the said £200 be paid to her children. And if her daughter Catharine has no children, then she directs the said amount be paid to her daughters Sarah and Mary.

Gives and bequeaths to her daughters Sarah Williams and Mary Williams £1,500, making them co-executrices of her last will and testament.

(her mark)

Witnesses: Wm. Sandys, Cath Keatt, Tesebella Cornish