Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/C/5186 W.

The Will of William Carthew 'the Elder' of the Parish of Illogan in the County of Cornwall, Yeoman, written 29 Jun 1839, proved 17 Nov 1841.

(paragraphed)

This is the last Will and Testament of me William Carthew, the elder, of the Parish of Illogan, in the County of Cornwall, Yeoman,

Whereas I the said William Carthew the elder have already advanced and paid unto my Son John Carthew the sum of about one hundred and twenty pounds And Whereas I have also advanced and paid unto my son William Carthew the younger, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, Subject to the yearly payment of Seven pounds and ten shillings, during the lives of myself, Ann, Mary, Jane, and Edward, my daughters and Son, and the life of the longest liver of them, And Whereas I have also advanced and paid unto my Son Thomas Carthew, the sum of one hundred and eighty pounds, Subject to the yearly payment of Nine pounds, during the said lives, as by two several Bonds or Obligations in Writing, which will be found among my papers, bearing date respectively, the twenty fifth day of June, instant, will appear.—

I give and bequeath unto my daughter Jane, my four best wine decanters, Set of Spirit decanters, Set of China, four Wine Glasses, and Chimney Ornaments, usually kept in the Parlour, for all my right therein. Also I give unto my daughter Jane, the sum of Thirty five pounds, to be paid to her within one month after my decease, Also I give unto my daughter Jane, the sum of Fifty pounds on the day of her Marriage, and not to be paid her until then. Also I give grant and bequeath unto my daughter Jane, one clear yearly Annuity Rent charge or sum of Ten pounds, of lawful money of Great Britain, free from all taxes and deductions whatsoever, to be paid to my said Daughter Jane by quarterly payments in equal portions, from the day of my decease yearly and every year until my said daughter Jane attains her age of Twenty one years or be married, which shall first happen, Also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Jane, All those Two dwelling houses and two Gardens called Stephens's tenement, situate in the parish of Illogan aforesaid, now in possession of William Roberts and John Stevens.— Also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Jane, a field called Polkinhornes, situate in Illogan aforesaid, now in my possession, To hold the said two dwelling houses gardens and field unto my said daughter Jane for all my right title and interest therein, Subject nevertheless as hereinafter mentioned.

I give grant and bequeath unto my Housekeeper, Sarah Polkinhorne, One clear yearly Annuity Rent charge of sum of Six pounds, of lawful money of Great Britain, free from all taxes and deductions whatsoever, to be paid to the said Sarah Polkinhorne, by quarterly payments, in equal portions, from the day of my decease, yearly and every year, during her natural life, or Marriage, which shall first happen ; Also I give and bequeath unto the said Sarah Polkinhorne, my Field Bed, including the Stead, furniture, tye, Boulster, Pillows, Blankets, Sheets, and Covering, belonging thereto; as her own property goods and Chattels for ever.— And my Will is and I hereby Will and desire that the said Sarah Polkinhorne shall live with my daughter Jane, free of rent, in the house now occupied by William Roberts, until my said daughter Jane shall be married, or die, which shall first happen.— My Will also is and I hereby Subject restrict the before bequeathed Two dwelling houses and two gardens called Stephens's tenement, and field called Polkinhornes, given to my daughter Jane, that if my said daughter Jane shall die without leaving issue lawfully begotten, that the said Two dwelling houses and two gardens called Stephens's tenement, and field called Polkinhornes, and her part of the Houses and land called Outer land hereinafter mentioned shall revert to and equally belong between my other residuary Legatees hereinafter named.—

I give and bequeath All those Two dwelling houses and land called Outer Land situate in the parish of Illogan aforesaid, now in my occupation and John Hocking and James Miners, And all every and singular the Residue of my real estate and personal estate unto my Children William, Thomas, Edward, Ann, Wife of John Rogers, Mary, Wife of Bethel Craze, and Jane, share and share alike, as Tenants in common, for all my right title and interest therein severally.— Subject nevertheless, that the several parts thereof belonging to my said daughters Ann, Mary, and Jane, shall not be interfered with or liable to the debts contracts engagements or intermeddling of any husband or husbands which they my said daughters now have or either of them may hereafter intermarry with.— And my Will is that if my said daughter Ann, the Wife of John Rogers, shall die without leaving issue lawfully begotten, that her part or share of and in the said Two dwelling houses and land called Outer land, shall immediately revert to and be equally divided between my other residuary Legatees, Share and Share alike as Tenants in common, Subject as aforesaid.

And I do hereby constitute and appoint my Sons William Carthew and Edward Carthew and each of them, Trustees over my said daughters Ann Rogers, Mary Craze, and Jane Carthew, and the parts or Shares of the property which shall belong to them by or in Virtue of this my last Will In Trust for my said three daughters severally and respectively.— And I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my said two Sons William Carthew and Edward Carthew, and each of them, Executors of this my last Will and Testament.— I give and bequeath unto my said daughter Jane, All that field bed, including the Stead, Furniture, tye, Boulter, Pillows, Blankets, Sheets and Covering, belonging thereto, as her own proper goods and Chattels, for ever.

And my Will is and I do hereby Will, restrict, order and direct that if my said Sons, William Carthew the Younger, and Thomas Carthew, or either of them, or either of their Executors or Administrators, shall fail in the due and regular payment of the said sums of Seven pounds, ten shillings, and Nine pounds, or either of them, or any part thereof, payable under the aforesaid Bonds or Obligations, that such of my said son so failing in the payment thereof respectively so due shall be fully paid and discharged, And I do hereby Subject and charge the payment of the said Annuity hereby bequeathed to the said Sarah Polkinhorne, on the said Houses and land called Outer land.— And my Will is and I hereby order and direct that my said Executors, and each of them, shall and do retain and pay unto themselves, and himself, all and every reasonable charge and expence which they, or he, shall be put to, or sustain, by or in consequence, or anyway incidental to this my last Will and Testament.

I Give and bequeath unto my Son John, if he should return to England, the sum of one shilling.

In Witness whereof I the said William Carthew the elder have to this my last Will and Testament, contained on Six slips of paper, written on one side only, to the first five pieces thereof set my hand, and to this last piece set my hand and Seal this Twenty ninth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine.

(Signed)

Signed Sealed published and declared by the said William Carthew the elder, the Testator, in the presence of us, who in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names, at one time, hereto.

John Janes, William Willoughby Jun^{r}

Will of William Carthew Yeoman dec'd proved in common form before the Worshipful John Sheepshanks Clk Archdeacon &c.

Admon of all and singular the Goods &c. of the said dec'd and any way concerning the said Will was granted to William Carthew and Edward Carthew, the sons of dec'd & Exors.

Effects sworn under £450.

Died 1st Nov^{r} 1841.

William Carthew of Tregajoran was buried in Illogan on 4 Nov 1841, aged 61 years.