

Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/D/1922.

Abstract of the Will of Joseph Dale of the Parish of Mawgan in the County of Cornwall, Yeoman, written 21 Oct 1793, proved 20 May 1794.

Makes his wife Ann Dale and his son Edward Dale co-executors of his will.

Gives to his son Joseph Dale a tenement called Zula in the parish of Mawgan, along with 100 guineas.

Gives to his daughter Grace Willey an annuity of £10.

Gives to his granddaughter Ann Willey an annuity of £5 following the death of her mother, to be paid out of the leasehold tenement in Zula.

Gives to his son Thomas Dale a tenement called Burges in the parish of Gunwalloe, with all the premises & deeds, out of which his grandson Jacob Lugg is to be paid an annuity of 40 shillings and his grandson Joseph Lugg £8 per annum.

Gives to his son Henry Dale his tenement called Gilley in the parish of Mawgan, paying to his son Edward Dale an annuity of £15.

Gives 40 shillings to his daughter Sarah Line.

(signed)

Witnesses: W. Tremayne, Jr., Peter Thomas, Alexander Jeffery