Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/H/7168 W.

Abstract of the Will of Peter Hosking of the Parish of Camborne in the County of Cornwall, Tinner, written 23 Jul 1795, proved 7? Apr 1804.

Gives to his wife Mary all the rents and profits of his premises of Carwinnen, for life.

Gives to his son Peter Hosking that part of his aforesaid premises currently occupied by Stephen Rowe, his son paying to his said wife an annuity of £3 6*s*. After the death of his wife, testator gives the proceeds of the said premises to his son Richard until he turns twenty-one.

Following the death of his brother John Hosking, the death of his said wife, and his son Richard coming of age, he gives to his son James two fields and a meadow as part of the said premises of Carwinnen, and to his son John he gives that part of Carwinnen currently occupied by the testator's brother, the said John Hosking.

After his five sons have taken possession of their respective parts of Carwinnen, he directs that they pay a guinea to each of his four daughters.

Wills that his son Richard and his daughter Priscilla shall have their maintenance paid for out of the said premises.

Appoints his sons Thomas and Richard co-executors of his last will and testament.

(Signed)
