

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers,
PROB 11/845/167.

Abstract of the Will of Mary Pendarves of Castle Hornack in the Parish of Paul and County of Cornwall, Widow, written 18 Jul 1758, proved 23 Mar 1759.

To be interred in the parish church of Paul near to her late husband.

Gives to her grandson Richard Pearce the mourning ring she bought for his grandfather. Gives half o'guinea each to the rest of her grandchildren.

Gives half o'guinea each to her four great-grandchildren.

Gives to her granddaughter Mrs. Lydia Veale her wedding ring, and after her death she gives the same to Lydia's daughter Anne.

Gives to her granddaughters Elizabeth, Jane and Caroline Borlase, a silver spoon each.

To her granddaughters Mrs. Veale, Mrs. Usticke, Margaret, Henrietta and Elizabeth Borlase, she gives one each, to buy them slight mourning.

Gives to her nephews, nieces, godchildren and tenants, a pair of gloves each.

Gives all her clothes to her granddaughters Elizabeth, Jane and Caroline Borlase, all her clothes.

All the rest of her goods, chattels and effects she gives to her son-in-law the Rev. Walter Borlase of Castle Hornack, whom she appoints sole executor and residuary legatee of her last will and testament.

Witnesses: Tho^s. Woodis, Jn^o. Sampson