

Familysearch, Film 8048392, image 335, transcript by Olive Moger, citing Bishops Consistory Court, Exeter; original destroyed.

Abstract of the Will of Arthur Spry of Place in the Parish of St. Anthony in Roseland and the County Cornwall, written 26 Jan 1683/4, proved 5 Oct 1685.

Gives £10 to his wife Luce Spry to buy her mourning.

Gives £3 10s. each to his children George Spry and his wife, Arthur, William & Luce Spry, Mary Kemp, Elizabeth Porter and Ann Haws, to buy mourning.

Gives £3 10s. to Mrs. Dorothy Nance to buy mourning.

Gives 50 shillings each to his brother Samwell Spry, and his (sons-in-law) John Nance, Nicholas Kemp, Christopher Porter and John Haws.

Gives 20 shillings to each of John Nance's children.

Gives to his son George all the goods and furniture in the two chambers occupied by his wife and her maids.

Gives to his son Arthur all the books he bought from Mr. Porter except the great Bible which he returns to Mr. Porter.

Gives to his son William all his estate with term of years in Hendersick alias Hendresick, or £1000.

Gives £1000 to his daughter Luce Spry.

Gives an annuity of £6 to Elizabeth Porter.

Gives 20 shillings a year for life to his sister Ann Ward. He gives to Ann's son George Ward, £5, and daughters Mary Trewin & Ann Roberts, 20 shillings each.

Gives 10 shillings each to Mary wife of John Bennet and her children.

Gives 10 shillings each to the children of his nephew George Spry, deceased, to buy them each a silver spoon.

Gives 5 shillings to each of his servants, and 20 shillings to Florence Trewin.

Gives £5 to the poor of St. Anthony.

Gives an annuity of £12 to his brother Samwell Spry.

All the rest of his goods, chattel estates, tinworks and bounds he gives to his sons George, Arthur and William, to be divided equally between them, and appoints them co-executors of his last will and testament.

Witnesses: Thos. Boles, Samuel Roch, Elizabeth Williams, William Waren