

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers, PROB 11/842/49.

Abstract of the Will of Richard Thomas of the Parish of Veryan in the County of Cornwall, Esquire, written 12 Aug 1805, proved 13 Nov 1806.

Gives one guinea to John Collier of Veryan.

Gives an annuity of £10 to Frances the wife of the said John Collier.

Gives to his wife Susannah his five best beds with their furnishings and bedding, all his household furniture, linen, china, plate, liquor &c., as well as the use of his dwelling house in Veryan along with various fields and closes of land.

All the rest of his estates real and personal he gives and bequeaths to his niece Mary Collins the wife of Edward Collins, Esq., appointing her the sole executrix of his last will and testament.

Witnesses: Jeremiah Trist?, Ann Painter, Jane Rove