

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers,
PROB 11/464/36.

Abstract of the Will of John Tremenheere of the Town of Penzance in the County of Cornwall, Merchant, written 19 Jul 1699, proved 6 Mar 1701/2.

Gives £250 to his daughter Elizabeth.

Gives £250 to his son Henry.

Gives £200 to his daughter Sibella.

Gives £200 to his son Thomas.

Gives £200 to his daughter Ann.

Gives £200 to his daughter Jane.

Gives £200 to his son William.

Gives £200 to his son James.

Gives to his son John Tremenheere and his heirs forever his messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments.

Gives £100 to his wife Sibella, this being besides the £400 his estate will pay her should she survive him, being the marriage portion he received when he married her.

Appoints his wife Sibella and his son John Tremenheere co-executors of his last will and testament. If Sibella should marry again, then his son John becomes sole executor and pays the £400 to his mother.

Appoints his kinsmen Thomas Worth the younger of the borough of Penryn, merchant, and John Gros of the town of Penzance, gent., supervisors of his will, giving them gold rings to the value of twenty shillings each.
