

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers, PROB 11/286/184.

Abstract of the Will of Euseby Dormer of Appleby in the County of Derbyshire, written 26 Nov 1658, proved 14 Jan 1658/9.

Gives £400 to his younger son Euseby.

Gives £400 to each to his sons and daughters (not named), to be paid to them when they each turn twenty-one, providing an annuity of £15 each for their maintenance during their respective minorities.

Gives to his brothers John Dormer and Fleetwood Dormer all his lands, tenements & hereditaments in Newington in co. Surrey, in trust, for the benefit of his children.

Appoints his said brothers John Dormer and Fleetwood Dormer co-executors of his last will and testament

Witnesses: Edmond Getty, Ann Julian