

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers, PROB 11/2037/229.

Abstract of the Will of Benjamin Horton of 8 Princes Place, Kennington Surrey, written 16 Sep 1840, proved 19 Jun 1846.

Appoints his wife Mary and his friends Mr. T. E. Johnson and W. H. Woollett his executors, giving to each a broom and ring to the value of £10, or any other memento of about the same value if more acceptable.

Gives and bequeaths to each of his clerks and to John Booth his cellarman a suit of mourning.

Gives and bequeaths to his wife all his furniture, plate, linen, glass, books, wearing apparel, wine & spirits, and other effects, along with an annuity of £300 during her natural life.

All the residue of his property and effects he gives and bequeaths to his children Benjamin, Mary Elizabeth, Alfred and Charles, share and share alike.