Abstract of the Will of Sarah Hoad of Hastings in the County of Sussex, Widow, written 29 Apr 1854, proved 31 Oct 1857.

Gives to her daughter Margaret the wife of John Croft Plomley all her clothes, wearing apparel, rings and trinkets.

Gives to her son Tom Harold Hoad all her household goods, furniture, plate, linen, china, glass, books, pictures and other effects. If he should die before her, she gives the same to her daughter Margaret Plomley and to her son Frederick Hoad to be equally divided between them.

Gives £100 to her sister Mary Gallop, widow.

Gives £50 in Trust to her son Frederick Hoad to be paid toward the education, apprenticing and advancement of her grandson Charles Hoad (the son of her deceased son John Fuller Hoad) during his minority.

Gives, devises and bequeaths the residue and remainder of her personal and real estate to her sons and daughter Frederick Hoad, Margaret Plomley and Tom Harold Hoad.

Devises to Edwin Martin of Battle in co. Sussex, gentleman, all estates vested in her upon Trust or by way of mortgage.

Appoints her son Frederick Hoad sole executor of her will.
