

Wiltshire, England, Wills and Probate, 1530-1858: P26/779.

Abstract of the Will of Mary Williams alias Carter of Farley in the County of Wilts, Widow, written 13 Oct 1730, proved 5 Feb 1733/4.

Gives and bequeaths 1 shilling to her son-in-law William Whitmarsh of Winterbourne, gunner.

Gives and bequeaths £5 to her granddaughter Elizabeth Whitmarsh, daughter of the said William Whitmarsh, to be paid to her when she reaches the age of twenty-one years. She also gives her granddaughter her least gold ring. If Elizabeth Whitmarsh should die before turning twenty-one, then she wills that the said £5 goes to her daughters Mary Adams and Lydia Williams als. Carter, share and share alike.

Gives and bequeaths £10 to her daughter Lydia Williams als. Carter, along with her second largest ring and all her household goods.

Gives and bequeaths 5 shillings to her daughter Mary Adams as well as her largest gold ring.

Gives and bequeaths 20 shillings to her granddaughter Mary Parsons.

Gives and bequeaths 20 shillings each to her grandsons Thomas, Joseph and Daniel Williams, to be paid to them at the age of twenty-one years.

Gives and bequeaths £2 to her granddaughter Sabina Williams.

Gives and bequeaths £25 to her son William, being the sum that she lent him.

Gives and bequeaths £20 to her son John Williams als. Carter, whom she appoints sole executor and residuary legatee of her last will and testament.

(her mark)

Witnesses: Thomas Rose, Thomas Williams