

B / 1836 / 68 / W, Bangor Probate Records, held at the National Library of Wales.

Abstract of the Will of John Evans of Tyn y coed in the Parish of Abererch in the County of Caernarvon, written 4 Apr 1835, proved 8 Apr 1836.

Gives and bequeaths £900 out of his personal property to Robert Jones of Plas ucha in the County of Merioneth, Gentleman, and Morris Jones of Parkia in the Parish of Criccieth in the County of Carnarvon, Gentleman, in Trust, whom he names as Trustees under his last will.

Gives and bequeaths £400 to his daughter Elizabeth the wife of Hugh Hunter Hughes, and after her decease to her child or children after they reach the age of twenty-one years. The interest of the £400 is to be paid to his said daughter Elizabeth and if she dies then to her child or children for their maintenance. If the interest of the £400 is less than £20 a year then his son Owen is to pay the difference.

Gives and bequeaths £500 to his daughter Jane, the residue of the £900 held in Trust by the said Robert Jones and Morris Jones, the interest of the £500 only being paid to her until she is married.

Gives and bequeaths to his son Owen the land called Droellan, except the slaughter house which he devises and bequeaths to his son John. Charges his son Owen to pay to his sisters Elizabeth and Jane £200 out of the above land and leasehold property.

All the rest and remainder of his personal estate he gives and bequeaths to his two sons, nominating and appointing them joint Executors of his last will and testament.

Signed
