

B / 1794 / 123 / W, Bangor Probate Records, held at the National Library of Wales.

Abstract of the Will of Mary Anwyl of Moorog Street in the Parish of Llanfwrog in the County of Denbigh, widow, written 30 Jan 1794, proved 2 Apr 1794, probate granted 30 Jul 1794.

Gives & devises her malt kiln with the room above the school room with its appurtenances situated in Moorog Street to her daughter Elinor Anwyl and her assigns during the term of her natural life. After the death of Elinor she gives & devises the same to her youngest son William Anwyl for and during the term of his natural life. And after the death of William she gives & devises the same to her eldest son Kenrick Anwyl his heirs and assigns forever.

Gives & devises all her messuages and dwelling houses with the orchard garden and their appurtenances situated in Moorog Street to her said son Kenrick Anwyl.

All her household goods chattels and effects she gives & bequeaths to her said daughter Elinor Anwyl and to her executors administrators & assigns, making and appointing her sole executrix of her last will and testament.

(Signed)

Witnesses: John Roberts of Clwyd Street
John Williams of Moorog Street, butcher
Goodman Roberts, Attorney, Ruthin