

B / 1772 / 104 / W, Bangor Probate Records, held at the National Library of Wales.

Abstract of the Will of Catherine Price of Tu yn y coed in the Parish of Dolgelley in the County of Merioneth, Widow, written 2 Apr 1767, proved 13 Oct 1772.

Gives and bequeaths £40 to her son Thomas Price and one silver tumbler.

Gives and bequeaths £40 to her son Richard Price.

Gives and bequeaths £40 to her daughter Jane Evans wife of Evan Evans of Dolgelley. She also gives to Jane her gold ring and, after Jane's decease, to Jane's daughter Nancy Evans.

Gives and bequeaths 1 guinea to her son Griffith Price.

Gives and bequeaths 1 guinea to her granddaughter Lowry Price.

Gives and bequeaths to her son Rice Price all her household goods and, after his decease, to her said daughter Jane Evans.

Refers to an amount owing to her of £20 and more from John William, drover
.

[tear in the middle of the document]

Nominates and appoints her [son] [Ri]ce Price sole executor of her last will and testament.

(her mark)

Witnesses: Howel Parry, Griffith Richard

An inventory of the goods and chattels of Catherine Price widow deceased was taken 20 Oct 1772 by William Griffith and Evan Jones.