

B / 1791 / 85 / W

Abstract of the Will of Evan Prichard of Dol-y-moch in the Parish of Ffestiniog in the County of Merioneth, Farmer, written 5 Jan 1791, proved 17 Feb 1791, probate granted 28 Feb 1791.

Wills and desires that £45 out of his personal estate be placed out at interest immediately after his decease and that the interest thereof be paid to his daughter Alice the wife of William Jones for her sole and separate use for the term of her natural life. On the death of his said daughter Alice he wills and bequeaths the said £45 to his grandchildren Ellinor, Evan, Richard, Robert, David and Margaret William, sons and daughters of his said daughter Alice, share and share alike.

Gives and bequeaths £10 to his grandson William, the son of his said daughter Alice.

Gives and bequeaths £5 to his grandson John, the son of his said daughter Alice.

All the rest and residue of his goods, cattle, chattels, farm stock, implements of husbandry, and personal estate he gives and bequeaths to his son William Evans and his friends Richard James of Lletty Willym and Robert Owen of Havod Ysputty in Trust for his grandchildren Elizabeth, Jane and Ellinor Evans, daughters of his said son William Evans, and Ellinor, Jane, Elizabeth, Alice, Owen and William Evans, children of his daughter Ellinor the wife of Evan Owen and John William the son of his said daughter Alice the wife of William Jones, share and share alike.

Nominates, constitutes and appoints his said son William Evans and his friends Richard James and Robert Owen executors of his last will and testament, giving to his said son William Evans two guineas and the two other Trustees one guinea each.

His mark

Witnesses:

Evan Owen of Festiniog

Thomas Richards of Llynydeduydd

An inventory of the goods, chattels and effects of Evan Prichard of Dôl-y-moch deceased was taken by Thomas Humphrey, Ephraim Joseph and Henery Jones and valued to £186 11s. 6d.